Chicken Row

Return Engagement?

Unless the City Council takes action, we're going to have it all over again—only worse.

For several months last Fall, Carmel and environs were entertained, and at times alarmed, by the spectacle of Carmel Woods' inhabitants refusing to speak to one another, and saying unpleasant things about one another because some thought their neighbors were raising too many chickens to remain in the amateur class and some thought that roosters are noisy non-essentials, and the legally-minded pointed out that any chicken raising, even in its mildest form, was out of order since Carmel Woods was a restricted district.

The antis and pros both appealed to the County Planning Commission to do something about the situation. After three heated public meetings, one in Carmel, one in Salinas before the Planning Commission, and one in Salinas before the County Board of Supervisors, after listening to both sides of the question and taking into consideration the urgency for home raising of food to supplement threatened shortages, the Supervisors, on the advice of the Planning Commission, drew up an amendment to the ordinance that prohibits all chicken raising, to allow chicken raising with restrictions that will protect the interests of all citizens in the area. Roosters are prohibited; the number of chickens is restricted; the coops must be in the rear of dwellings and at a specified distance from the property line. Rules of sanitation are to be observed. The regulations were drawn up with the assistance of the county farm advisor, and everybody is satisfied: chicken raisers and non-chicken raisers, in Carmel Woods, and the other unincorporated areas bordering the town, but now—

The Farm Extension Bureau is launching a campaign here to encourage people to raise their own food: vegetables and chickens. Carmel people are showing considerable enthusiasm for the project. Soon a number of people are going to start raising chickens—willingly, as many as they like, some placing the coops directly under their neighbor's bedroom window if it is near the property line, and they are so inclined. There is nothing to prevent them constructing chicken houses and runs in their front yard in full view of the street, and they may have as many roosters to serenade the dawn as they desire. There is no ordinance restricting chicken raising in Carmel, and as in Carmel Woods, civil war is going to break out among neighbors in Carmel shortly.

And consider the confusion in the classes the Extension Bureau is going to conduct here. Picture the lecturer saying: "Now in constructing your coops, you in the city limits of Carmel, may do so and such, because the law allows it, but you in Hatton Fields, the Point and Carmel Woods may not do so and such, but will have to do this and that, because of the county ordinance."

Wouldn't it be wise of the City

Dr. Van Niel Wins Stephen Hales Prize In Plant Physiology

The Stephen Hales Prize of the American Society of Plant Physiologists, awarded every other year for distinguished contributions to plant physiology, has been given this year to Dr. C. B. Van Niel of Stanford University, whose Carmel home is at Camino Real and 4th.

The announcement appeared in the February 5th issue of "Science."

The citation reads in part: "an inspiring teacher, whose detailed knowledge and critical advice have been widely and fruitfully sought; whose keen intuitions and patient experiments, governed always by the most rigid and exacting experimental standards, have led him to generalizations of great importance for the comprehension of the synthetic processes of higher and lower plants."

Wheeler Newest of Cypress Watchers To Win Award

Willard W. Wheeler of Crespi Lane and Crescent Drive, Pebble Beach, is the newest member of the Cypress Point Aircraft Warning Service to receive the award presented by the 4th Fighter Command for completing 500 hours on his post.

These 500 hours represent actual time spent on watch, and do not include the hours put in by members of isolated Cypress Point post in traveling to and from their duties at odd times of the day and night. Some of these watchers travel as many as twenty miles on the round trip.

The award is a silver pin, showing the wings of the air corps against a blue enamel background and bearing the following inscription (in abbreviation) against the figure of a plane in flight: "Fourth

Sunset Cafe Is Too Prosperous

The school board rolled up its sleeves, cheerfully worked through a mass of detail and adjourned at the unheard of early hour of 10 o'clock Tuesday night.

Subject matter ranged from confirming teacher's contracts, and the turnover in this department has been terrific the last two months, to how best to tie down the high school roof, parts of which blew off in the last storm, and what to do about Sunset cafeteria which insists on making a profit.

Formal leave was granted Donald Craig, history teacher, now a lieutenant in the Navy. Mrs. Brey's, Dr. Steeve's and Miss Ray's election as teachers was confirmed. The names of Kenneth Jones, Arthur Jones and Ruth Burrows were added to the list of mid-winter graduates; the latter two had completed their work in Oakland and San Jose schools but wanted their certificate from Carmel high. Kenneth wanted his certificate at this time because he wishes to enlist for the Navy air service.

The board granted permission for Harold Buffa and Leila Gulumert to attend the Health Coordinators' Institute at San Jose, Feb. 23 to 26.

In an attendance report, Mrs. Helen Wood, Sunset principal said that Sunset's present enrollment is 445 students. J. D. Getsinger, reported 246 for the high school. Peter Mawdsley in his financial report revealed that the high school cafeteria had shown a profit of $10.54 last month, Sunset cafeteria, a profit of $199.48. The surplus to the credit of Sunset cafeteria is about $700 in addition to $500 owed it by the high school cafeteria.

Mrs. Wood pointed out that

Ronald Hayes to Present Varied Program Sunday

Tremendous interest is being shown in the recital of Roland Hayes next Sunday afternoon when it is expected that the Sunset School Auditorium will be packed to capacity for the Third concert of the Carmel Music Society Series. The program will begin at two-forty-five o'clock, and with Reginald Boardman at the piano, the celebrated Negro musician will present a widely varied program.

Mrs. Rountree to Start V Garden Class at Sunset

In keeping with the trend both nationally and locally, residents of Carmel are participating in the Victory Garden program. To assist local gardeners in their efforts, a class will be started next Monday afternoon at the Sunset School.

The Carmel Adult School, sponsor of the class, has been fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. Lester Rountree as the class leader. Mrs. Rountree is well known among gardeners both in

Kids Put Over March Of Dimes

The March of Dimes drive closed in Carmel Thursday after a total of $205 in nickels, dimes and quarters had rattled into the wishing wells that had been placed in business houses about town and at the two city schools.

Of the total, over $90 was raised through the efforts of children. Sunset students contributed $19.90; the high school $22.50; the parish of the Carmel Mission $55.60, where children again were the most energetic workers. Bobby Osborne brought in $15.20 in the wishing well that Father O'Connell had given him to pass around among his friends. Mary Jane Sullivan collected $10.05.

Those in town who did not remember to make their contribution, will have another opportunity when the motion picture houses start their independent March of Dimes campaign on Thursday, February 18. As in the case of funds collected in the city campaign just finished, the theaters will give half the collections to the local fund and send half back to national headquarters.

Carmel Committee in charge of the drive: Fred Bechdolt, J. W. Getsinger, Harry Hilbert, Mrs. Vera Peck Millis.

Valley Cavalry Receives License

Twenty-eight Carmel Valley men had cause for satisfaction Sunday afternoon when they received official recognition for a year of hard work and loyal service, their license as a military company of the California State Guard.

Proudest and happiest of the twenty-eight was their leader, K. D. Mathiot.

He organized the group, the Carmel Valley Cavalry Unit, on his Rancho Carmelo where they have met and drilled regularly twice a week throughout the year. Sunday they gathered there to receive their license from Col. Frank B. Edwards, who had come down from Sacramento for that purpose.

They have provided their own mounts, arms and uniforms. If trouble comes, their job will be to act as scouts in their district for the regular army, to guard bridges, reservoirs and all important installations.

They are, in the literal sense of the word, the Home Guard. Of this they had reassurance from Col. Edwards when he spoke to them Sunday afternoon, emphasizing that this section of the State Guard, the Licensed Military Units, cannot be taken from their home territory.

"In some localities, men have hesitated to sign up for these units — there are about 300 of them throughout the state—because they are afraid they will be moved out of their own district as has been done with the State Guard Active," Col. Edwards said.

"Suppose they take us away to guard the Golden Gate Bridge" men have asked me, and I tell them, 'Sure—and the State will lease the Palace Hotel for you to sleep in and we'll all go over to

Briggs Family Send Cable to War Prisoner Son

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Briggs last week sent a 25 word cable to their son, Peter D. Briggs, a prisoner of war, in the Philippines. It will be the first exchange of messages between parents and son since his cable to them from the Philippines in December 1941, when he wished them a Merry Christmas.

He was reported missing after the fall of Bataan. Nothing was heard of him until January 21 of this year when his parents received notification from Adjutant General Ullo in Washington, D. C., that their soldier-son was a war prisoner of the Japanese. This week they were informed that it would be possible for them to send him a personal message of twenty-five words through the International Red Cross.

Their message contained as much of the happiness they felt at learning he had not perished at Bataan, as much cheering news about the other members of the family, as much of love and reassurance as can be compressed into 25 words.

The message will go to Washington, D. C., then to New York for censorship, then to Switzerland, where it will be the task of the International Red Cross to see to its arrival at its destination.

They Furnish the Wool; You Do the Work for the Boys

One-hundred thousand knitted wool articles have been requested from the needles of civilian knitters, for immediate distribution to our men in the armed forces.

It may not be known generally that under War Department Circular No. 238, commanding officers may apply directly to Bundles for America for such knitted articles as are really needed to supplement the items of regular issue or are required when regular issue items are not available."

To meet this present urgent request, Bundles for America has received a new consignment of wool, and any Carmel knitters who may have even a little time to spare can be furnished at once with plenty of material. Bundles for Britain also has sufficient wool. Anyone who is able to help out in the present emergency should call for material at the Bundles-United Thrift Shop on Dolores Street, next to the Woods' Pharmacy, without delay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wright have returned from their annual stay in Twenty-Nine Palms and have reopened their home on Mountain View and Santa Rita.

There's only ONE Answer To Rationing

Buy Quality Footwear

Effective this week, ALL leather shoes are rationed by government order, limiting every person man, woman or child, to THREE pairs of shoes per year. War Ration Stamp No. 17 may now be used for your first quarterly purchase.

Shoe Rationing need not impose hardships upon anyone, but THERE IS THIS FACT TO REMEMBER! . . . Now, more than ever before, buy only QUALITY footwear, manufactured by nationally known, responsible companies, whose name and reputation stand behind their dealers, just as responsible dealers stand behind every sale they make.

Holman's is proud to announce that we are completely stocked and equipped to handle the footwear needs of your entire family, with highest quality, nationally known brands of footwear. Be sure of what you buy, and you'll be sure to get footwear that will stand up, and look well, for months and months.

We specialize in SIZES, in expert fitting. More than that, Holman's more than half a century of fair dealing is your guarantee today that every RATION STAMP and EVERY DOLLAR you spend at Holman's will give you the GREATEST return, in comfort, satisfaction, economy AND long wear!

Mrs. Colvin Sees Sons Off, Meets Old Friends Here

Charles E. Colvin, the first Carmel 18-year-old draftee, has arrived in Shepherd Field, Texas, where he starts his training as an army aviator, and he likes it, we learned through his mother, Mrs. W. P. Colvin, Sr., who received a letter from him last week.

When Charles, a Carmel High boy, left on January 14, he was the third son to go into the service, making three stars for Mrs. Colvin's flag, though she claims five, an additional one for each of her two sons-in-law, Capt. H. R. Arcularius (husband of Iris) at Hickam Field, Honolulu, and William Rubenstahl (husband of Betse), Camp Crowder, Missouri.

Her two sons are Lt. Harold P. Colvin, in the Army field artillery in Hawaii, and Lt. William P. Colvin, Jr., in the medical corps at Bushnell Hospital, Brigham, Utah.

When she came here a year ago, to be near Harold, then at Fort Ord, Iris, Charlie and Mackie were with her, the latter two high school age. But now Iris and Mackie are both in San Francisco, and the boys all away with their respective outfits.

Asked if she would make her home here, "for the duration anyway," she shrugged her shoulders and chuckled in her heart-warming way.

"I may—I may not. I'm free to travel."

And apparently she never tires of a migratory existence since her life both before and after the death of her husband has been largely traveling around, though she has taken some time out for writing children's stories and articles for the Bell Syndicate and the Kansas City Star.

"An odd thing happened when I came here," she said. "Leafing through the phone book to see who lived in my neighborhood, I found the name of L. O. Kellogg, and he and his wife live quite near

Tommy Phillips, Pho. M. 2/c Returns To Post at Capital

Tommy Phillips leaves today after a week's holiday in Carmel which terminates his leave, returning to his post in Washington, D. C., where he is engaged in the motion picture end of naval photography. His official title, so he tells us, is Pho. M. 2/c.

Tommy is no stranger in Carmel. The son of Dr. T. G. Phillips, he grew up here, and prior to his enlistment in the Navy just a year ago, was manager of the Carmel Theater.

Following his graduation from boot camp at San Diego, Tommy spent six months in New York, with March of Time, continuing his studies in the special field of pictorial journalism, which happened to be his own pet enthusiasm. While in New York, he encountered two old Carmel friends: John Eaton, of the well-known John and Mitzi Eaton Marionette Theater, and Dick Carter, formerly with the Carmel branch of the Monterey County Trust and Savings Bank. Dick Carter is now on the staff of Parade Magazine in New York.

New Melo Opens February 19 at First Theatre

The Trouper of the Gold Coast are busy at the First Theatre in Monterey with rehearsals on the next play: "From Rags to Riches." Nightly the plot thickens under Irene Alexander's direction. Rhoda Johnson is working day and night on costumes and Franklin Dixon is building sets in six scenes.

Following is the cast: Ned Nibble, Jim Jensen; Flossie, Katie Martin; Albert Cooper, Allan Sonin; Prince Charlie, Darwin Law; Dan Hastings, Jess Ojeda; Giles, Wayne Edwards; Slade, William Flewellings; Mother Murphy, Louise Welty; Gertrude, Willma Bott; Myrtle, Barbara Stitt; Vera, Ruth Bizzini; Old Montgomery, Franklin Dixon.

"From Rags to Riches" opens on Friday February 19 and continues on Saturday and Sunday. Curtain at 8:15.

Dexter Please In MAC Recital

By DAVID MARRS

Those who braved the storm last Sunday afternoon to hear the Musical Art Club concert were well rewarded. The artists were Betty Barbour Dexter, cellist, and Benning Dexter, pianist, the latter from the faculty of San Jose State College. It was of particular interest in that this concert was the first musical to be held in the Music Room at the Carmel High School. The place seemed adequate in every way. There was a brilliant-toned Steinway piano and large stage. Acoustically the room is fine. It is hoped that the Musical Art Club will take advantage of this excellent place to give its future concerts.

The program Sunday was sufficiently varied to please all tastes. Outstanding was the Beethoven Sonata Op. 5 for me. The last I'd seen them had been in Ecuador, where he had been sent as a mining engineer, and my husband as a doctor."

"PINE INN is prepared to make exceptionally attractive rates to permanent guests. Excellent food and service, pleasant rooms and friendly atmosphere will relieve many of your burdens through these trying times. Gym Quivers Under Impact of Peanut Leaguers

Carmel high school gym heard something new in the way of noise Sunday afternoon when C. L. Frost's Peanut League for the first time held one of its three game basketball meets in Carmel.

The league is made up of six teams of 7th and 8th graders from all over the peninsula, and what they lack in technique—which is not as much as you would think—they make up in vocal energy. You couldn't hear the downpour on the gymnasium roof Sunday.

The Pacific Grove Jeeps took the first game from the Carmel Fireflies, 26 to 15. The Monterey Wildcats beat the New Monterey Cougars 18 to 7. And the Carmel Destroyers dropped theirs to the Monterey Bombers 13 to 6.

As the league now stands the Monterey Bombers have won four and lost none, which is batting a thousand. The other Monterey team, the Wildcats, tie their townsmen with an identical record. New Monterey's team, the Cougars have won two and lost two. Pacific Grove Jeeps have one to their credit and three losses. They are tied by the Carmel Fireflies. The Carmel Destroyers bring up the rear with no games won and four lost, but have a chance to pick one up this Sunday when the six teams meet in Monterey high school gym for the last round of the league.

Boys playing on the Carmel teams: The Fireflies: Jerry Shepherd, Richard Templeman, Perry Brown, Henry Moltine, Bill Sappis, Victor Harbor and Jack Chalkley. The Destroyers: Lew Earl McCreery, Mat Schmutz, Owen Greenan, Rod Dewar, Richard Mulholland, Murray White, Ray Wermuth, Linne Bardarson, Mike Monahan and Jimmie Hare.

cello and piano which was read with vigor and clarity. Its two movements contained the simplicity of Mozart, but also the punch usually found in early Beethoven. For his first solo work Mr. Dexter chose the Chopin Ballade in A flat which he phrased with great sensitivity but transversed the climax without the abandon it deserves. As a contrast followed Warum by Schumann, very practically played. Then followed Three Preludes by the modern Russian genius, Shostakovich. These preludes were arresting in their novelty and the second in particular was lugubrious and full of horror. Mr. Dexter was very adept at these modern pieces.

His concluding number was Naila Waltzes by Delibes-Dohnanyi, a collection of delicious dances, skilfully arranged for piano and brilliantly played.

Mrs. Dexter's group of cello solos which opened the recital included the Concerto in B flat by Boccherini. This cellist plays with full rich tone brought out by the unusual color and modernity of this century-old work.

The Dexters are fine artists and it is hoped we will hear more of them again in the future.

Lions to Hold Ladies' Night Party Feb. 23

Tuesday night, Feb. 23, the Lions will entertain their ladies with a party at the Mission Ranch Club, it was announced at the regular dinner meeting last Tuesday night at the Pine Inn.

Movies, instead of the customary guest speaker, provided the entertainment for this week's meeting, Alvin Beller showing his film of Hawaii and Robert Emmett O'Brien providing one of Bali scenes.

Guests of the evening were Kansas City Lion Kemp Carter, Ernest R. Calley and Andre DaMiano.

Valley Cavalry Is Licensed as State Guard Unit

(Continued from page 1) the nearest lumber yard to find a shingle to eat off. That's the strongest argument I know against the possibility of these Licensed Military Units being moved out of their own territory. They are not equipped to get out of riding distance of their home kitchens."

Col. Edwards, a retired U. S. Army Cavalry officer, is the trouble shooter for the State Guard, and probably spends more hours traveling than any other man in the organization. He ranges up and down the state in his car licensing companies, reassuring units that are about to break up, helping organize new units. In his 'spare time' he teaches fencing to the Headquarters Unit in Sacramento, the women of the clerical staff in the Sacramento office.

He is a stimulating personality to meet as this Pine Cone representative discovered in a talk with him on the ranch Sunday before the licensing of the Carmel Valley Cavalry Unit.

He is a West Pointer whose training was interrupted by the Spanish-American War, who grumbles cheerfully because he's Merle's Treasure Chest is very lucky, because in spite of War and Taxes it has managed to procure some of those really beautiful carved wooden figures from Bali. The aura of the East clings to these figures of Sandalwood, Teak and Mahogany, rare and prized woods in themselves. One, a figure of an archer, only a little over a foot high, has bow and arrow which are removable, facilitating packing. Another lovely thing is a pair of book-ends in the shape of birds. And the carving is mute testimony of the hours of painstaking labor and artistry of some little Balinese artisan in the French Indo-China of yesterday.

Some of the nicest and most practical gifts caught my eye in Tarrant's the other day. Paper napkin and match case sets, playing cards, book plates, paper guest towels, coasters, towel and match case sets, and a full line of these personal and attractive items . . . All with your personal monogram or name on them. They are in a variety of colors and patterns, and the nice part about it is that they can be monogrammed and ready for you within two or three days of the time you order them . . . the ideal gift, useful, attractive, and inexpensive.

Have you ever seen the clever handkerchiefs at the Jean Ritchie Shop? They are hand-blocked, with very complete maps of the entire Peninsula, showing all the points of interest. They are wonderful for newcomers here in town to send home to friends because the detail work is complete even to the Lone Cypress, Carmel Mission, Valley Road, Pebble Beach Lodge, Point Lobos and everything! Mrs. Ritchie is the only one on the Peninsula who carries these handkerchiefs, and in addition to these, she also has some other lovely ones, hand-blocked in many pretty shades with flower patterns and cypress trees.

Council to pass an ordinance now modeled on the amended County ordinance (it could be a carbon copy of the county law which was the result of careful study, the advice of experts, and has resulted in general satisfaction) so that restrictions will be uniform for the close environs of Carmel and the City of Carmel? The Council will have to come to it when the row starts among the neighbors, why not before people spend money to construct coops that will have to be torn down later?

Some people are raising chickens now in Carmel. A few always have. Heretofore there have not been enough of them to create a situation. But things are going to be different.

always been let behind to drill the rookies, as was the case in World War I.

Following the war, he was commanding officer of a military school in the east. His interest in fencing and riding kept him active as coach in those sports after his retirement from the army. When he made his home with Mrs. Edwards in Pasadena, his fencing was at the service of the students of the Pasadena Junior College where he liked to "give the boys a work-out." He also served as fencing coach to the players of the Pasadena Playhouse.

With the start of this war, he became active in C. D. work, organizing groups in his own territory. Invited to help organize the San Luis Obispo C. D., he stayed on to start a militia unit there. It was his work in this capacity that drew him into the State Guard organization.

the United States and in England, as she has been a frequent contributor to all horticultural magazines in both countries and has written several books on various phases of gardening. In her new role she prefers not to be known as the instructor, but rather as the discussion leader, as she feels that the shared experiences of all of the class members will provide the greatest assistance to all gardeners. In addition to the mutual endeavor toward better gardens, from time to time guest speakers will be present, some from the County Agriculture Office in Salinas and others from Monterey and Carmel.

The first meeting of the class, next Monday at 3:30 in the Sunset School Lunch Room, will be primarily for the purpose of determining a program. The course to be followed will be decided by those present at the class, rather than having a set schedule predetermined that may not satisfy the demands of the majority. It is expected that many Carmel gardeners will take advantage of this opportunity to improve their Victory Gardens and thereby contribute their bit toward the war effort.—R.D.

Irwin in Guard House in Arizona But Honorably

The Pine Cone Cymbal staff is in a state of distress and uncertainty due to a letter received Tuesday morning from Cpl. W. H. Irwin (Bill Irwin—former California editor). He says:

"Dear Cooks:

Here I sit in an Arizona Guard house, not an A-wol, but a guard to enforce a heart-breaking base rule of two weeks' quarantine for new units."

Following a personal remark or two, he winds up with "I almost feel like an overseas soldier already, tho' it'll be two weeks before I can look over the town and country, or even commune with a cactus."

Our heart bleeds for Bill, of course, but he is not the reason for the present state of distress and uncertainty that oppresses the Pine Cone Cymbal office. He neglected to tell us in his letter what is the fate of Chicken Feathers, the two-sheet, mimeographed Company B paper he was editing when his camouflage outfit was still at Hammer Field.

Chicken Feathers (we were on the mailing list) sweetened our days and brightened our nights, and if anything happens to it, we'd just as soon they keep Bill in the Arizona guard house.

Bill also failed to mention in his letter how Queenie is getting along. In the last issue of Chicken Feathers (Jan. 29), Queenie enjoyed headlines:

Sextuplets Born in B Company Day Room

Blessings fell in full upon Company B when the overloaded stork circled the field Sunday morning, missed the runway and crashed exhausted into the Day Room delivering five healthy males and one weak female to Queenie.

Queenie, Queen of them all, Queenie, the sweetheart of Company B, Queenie, the ever faithful and loving companion of all CQs. Queenie who stood the night watch without fail to welcome and check in the expansive or dejected men returning from town. And now Queenie, touched with the mysterious and beautiful glow of Motherhood.

Queenie set the day room in a whirl of suppressed excitement Sunday afternoon when the first of the multiple blessed events overtook her. The radio was turned down, the men tip-toed in awed silence and even the pool balls clicked in a gentler manner.

A detail under Sergeant Bill Smith acted as mid-wife in the absence of the profession and tenderly gathered the healthy bawling babes from various parts of the floor and deposited them in an already prepared nursery box. Charge of Quarters, Sgt. Matthew Phillips, in his nervous excitement, went to call the ambulance, but was restrained by tender loving men who distrusted the blister busters and demanded to attend Queenie themselves.

Top-kick Oscar Olsen, upon hearing the glad news, howled in wolfish glee and ordered a portable palace from carpenter sergeants Lewis and Hoseid.

As yet the little ones haven't been christened, but various names have been selected to present, as suggestions, to Queenie. Field Expedient Flat Top, Eight Ball, Hut Heet, Hife, Hote and At Ease are but a few of the suggestions from the adoring men of Company B.

The father, Queenie insists, is overseas at the fighting front. However the nasty rumor persists that he is A-wol.

SUNSET SCHOOL NEWS

Abraham Lincoln

Abraham Lincoln, as we all know, was a very fine man. He was, and still is loved and respected by all Americans. He was often called "Honest Abe" because of his honesty to everyone. Now especially we should think of Lincoln since it is his birthday.

Ask yourself this question, "What would have happened if Lincoln hadn't freed the slaves?" — Ruth Clark, 5th Grade.

Life of Lincoln

Lincoln was born on February 12, 1809, in a little log cabin in Kentucky. The cabin in which he lived had only one room and a leaky roof. Lincoln's family was very poor.

When Lincoln was only a small boy, his family moved to Indiana. He helped a great deal around the farm. When he was not busy at home he worked for a neighbor at twenty-five cents a day. When he was a child he was allowed to go to school a little less than a year, but he read every book he could borrow. He often studied at night by the light from the fireplace. His family was too poor to buy paper so he used boards and the wooden fire-shovel to write on. That man from the woods of Kentucky grew to be our most famous president. — Sheila O'Brien, 6th Grade.

Kindergarten Sayings

Sandra Kohner: "Miss McQuilken, guess what our chickens laid?"

Malcolm Fraser: "Malcolm is an old Scotch name. My mother browsed around and found it."

A Happy Week

We have had a very happy week in our room. We took a trip on Tuesday to the dairy. On Wednesday we had a butter-making party, and on Friday we went to a play in the auditorium. — Ann Loader, 2nd Grade.

A Visit to the Police Station

The day Officer Hay came to our class, he said for us to select two children from each second grade to go to visit the police station. We chose David McPherson and Grace Beihl from our class. When they came back they told us all about it. — Bob Laugenour, 2nd Grade.

To the Dairy

We went to the dairy. We saw the pasteurizing machine work. Then we saw the milk go over the cooler and into the bottles. We saw the bottling machine work. Before we left, Mr. Ricketts gave us each a bottle of milk to drink. We had a good time and we thank Mr. Ricketts. — John Cronin, 2nd Grade.

The day we went to the dairy we came back through the lumber yard and then went to the city yard. My father was there and he let us come in to see all the trucks, the grader, tractor and the water wagon. We had fun. We climbed on the truck and the grader. — Fred Askew, 2nd Grade.

Our Butter-Making Party

Jane Bond's mother brought some cream from their ranch so we could make butter. We invited Mrs. Kohner's class to our party. We took turns shaking the cream until it turned into butter. Then we ate the butter on graham crackers. We are glad Jane's mother brought the cream because we couldn't buy cream now.

— Sandra Rhodes, 2nd Grade.

My Most Embarrassing Moment

One day when I was going to ask my teacher something, I said, "Mother, I --" instead of Miss Staffelbach. Boy, was I embarrassed!

When I went home that night, I called my mother Miss Staffelbach. Mother was very surprised. When Daddy came home, Mother told him about my mixing her up with my teacher. — Marlene Stone, 4th Grade.

Mistaken Identity

Last Friday I was credited with a good article that was published in the Pine Cone that I did not write. Chan Tysor wrote it. I should like to express my apologies to Chan for this mistake. — DuVal Roberts, 7th Grade.

Speech, Speech

Speech, speech, is what everyone was saying last Friday afternoon when Room 3 held its election for new class officers. The new officers are: President Frank Timmins; Vice-president, Bob Barry; Secretary, DuVal Roberts; Treasurer, Peggy Riker. — George Little, 7th Grade.

New Student

A new boy came to Sunset School Monday. He came from Chapel Hill, North Carolina. His dad is a lieutenant, senior grade, and is stationed out at Del Monte. His name is Vinton Hoyle, and he is interested in airplanes like his dad. He sure has a southern drawl. — Chan Tysor, 7th Grade.

A Cave I Found

A few days ago my brother and I were going along the beach. It was sunset and we were climbing along the rocks and going into caves. When we were almost on the other side of a small cave, I saw a hole in the side of the rocks. We were just about to go in when we saw a lot of mosquitos in it, so we stayed out. — Jerry Montague, 5th Grade.

At the Beach

I have a lot of fun at the beach. There are a lot of ledges and cliffs there. Many times my friends and I fall but most of the time there are branches there to hang on to. Sometimes there aren't any ledges so we have to walk on the sand. — Anne Elliott, 5th Grade.

Our Woodpecker

A few days ago when I came to school I heard a noise that sounded like a machine gun and looked all over for it. Finally I looked up and saw a woodpecker pecking on the top of the school. Nearly every morning he does it. He must like the sound of the tin as he pecks it. — Erik Short, 5th Grade.

The High School Play

It was Teddy's sister's wedding day and Teddy was surely glad to get rid of her. All he wished was that she'd get out of the bathroom so he could wash his neck and ears. He didn't see why she had to take an hour and ten minutes just to take a bath. He thought if she was going to take

Tax Examiner to Be in Carmel on February 18-19

For the convenience of those who are required by law to file state income tax returns, an income tax examiner will visit this city on February 18 and 19, 1943 to assist taxpayers in this vicinity with the filing of their income tax returns. The tax examiner will be located in Monterey County Trust and Savings Bank, February 18; Bank of Carmel, February 19, 1943. The matter of filing income tax returns should be given immediate attention in order to avoid penalty and interest charges for late filing.

Every single individual whose net income amounts to $1,000, and every married couple living together whose net income amounts to $2,500 is required to file a return. In either case a return is required when the gross income amounts to $5,000 even though the net income may be less than the amounts mentioned above.

MISS MORSE EXPECTED

Miss Mary Morse will return to Pebble Beach in the latter part of February, on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. B. Morse. She has been in New York since her graduation from Stanford University last June.

the busy little termites

By PROFESSOR FRANCIS E. LLOYD

dear boss i am relying on the verity of the pythagorean theory of metempsychosis in writing this to you you are somewhere where the climate is good i hope though to be sure you were a newspaper man a good one at that even so i am not so sure anyhow when i was in collaboration with you you did not think much of insects though your opinion was better than that of mankind in general of course though i say it as shouldn't i a mere cockroach did not a little to mold your judgment modesty prevents my saying more also space anyhow at the best you did not have as high respect for insects as is their due as will appear from the aftercoming it is a remarkable proof of the great intelligence of insects in particular of termites otherwise incorrectly known as white ants they are not white nor ants you know what termites are question mark if you don't write to the department of agriculture washington d c or to the university of california in berkeley and you can find out if you can understand their termitology well these here termites raise hell with structural timbers what they do if they are hungry or are in a mood of social ambition or are just plain mean and solidus or so forth if they find a nice new house has just gone up i don't mean literally as your knowledge of semantics will tell you namely a house preferably one built on mud sills like they used to build in carmel in the good old days before the folks swelled up and used plaster to cure it where was i question mark o yes if their intelligence service notifies them of a new house they leave the ground where they live between times feeding on old bits of wood and beginning at a suitable point of contact with the ground they start burrowing in the timbers of the new house in which timbers they now make oodles and oodles of tunnels and galleries in one comfortable chamber of which they install a member of the royal family who is destined by a kind fate to become the author of more and more termites in multitudes beyond counting unless you have an adequate staff and a whole lot of comptometers billions of them but that's nothing we are used to billions now a days now these termites enthusiastic as they are in the matter of tunneling wood, and working entirely in the dark never make holes on the outside of the timbers not they in the course of a few months or years depending on the temperature and so forth i've been loafing around the university recently last seven words in parenthesis and with unrelenting industry the whole damned house becomes so completely mined in every direction with the above noted exception that it is ready to fall apart there being nothing for the nails to hang on to exclamation point two of them would be better but the human race being selfish does not entirely approve of termites so they hired some pretty clever chaps up at berkeley to do some investigation as they call it to find out how to circumvent their nefarious activities after they had found out they wrote it all out and in due time it was all printed several nice fat pamphlets resulting these they stacked up awaiting mailing in response to frantic inquiries as to how to save houses that had already succumbed the aforesaid intelligence service notified the main guy of the local termite chapter and when he looked the situation over ha ha he said propaganda against termites that us printed on wood pulp that our meat we can stand a bit of printers ink i guess and so in a very short time the whole stack of pamphlets was reduced to tunnels per se last two words in italics that will show them said the main guy now i say that this is an irrefutable proof of intelligence of insects pitted against that of man eight words in italics dont you really agree with me interrogation point if i had my way that main guy

POETRY

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY 1943

*The blessed buds of Valentine
Come crimson through the bough—
Laughing at grief; shining at fear;
Pledging their wordless vow.*

*So put on a bright red blouse, my dear—
Stick a ribbon in your hair!
Don't let an old bent almond-tree
Defeat you with a dare!*

—ANON.

IN SOME FAR VALLEY . . .

*In some far valley where high waters pour
And cataract to silence in the deep ~
Bowled canyon, where the mountain grayling leap
And distance dims the waterfall's white roar;
Beneath the pine that knew our alpine tryst,
Where lisping waters spoke of love and peace . . .
Somehow I never dreamed that these would cease,
Or sorrow seal these lips your lips have kissed.*

*In some blue valley—now that you're away . . .
And ferns grow deep on trails we used to know—
To hide my heart's grey grieving I must go
And spend the morning where we used to stray.
And though the bracken claim our old retreat,
Blue distance bind the distant tangled trail . . .
In some dim dawn I'll meet you without fail—
And join the pathway broken by your feet.*

—BLANCHE DEGOOD LOFTON.

OF ALL OF THESE

*A spray of blossoms nodding from a jar—
A waterlily floating in a pool—
The sunlit cobwebs blown like drifting tulle—
Above the slim new moon the evening star . . .
Cathedral silence of the somber woods—
A river's stealthy flow beneath a bridge—
A silver plane above a mountain ridge
With peaks that glisten in their snowy hoods.*

*Of all of these and more the poet sings;
They flash on canvas by the painter's
Musicians put them into trills that run
Through symphonies; and rapture floats from strings.
But hidden deep within creation's heart,
They have their source in God, and all are one.*

—ALICE JOSEPHINE WYATT.

TO YOU

*I, too, have known the dreary waste of words
When there is nothing that can be said;
I, too, have felt the rebel stab of tears
Held in averted eyes—unshed.*

—EVE BALSER.

5TH AIR BASE SQUADRON,
BARKSDALE FIELD, LOUISIANA
FEBRUARY 3, 1943

DEAR PINE CONE GANG:

It seems a long time since I stood on Ocean Avenue and waited for the infernally slow bus to Monterey High. And even longer since I hiked up from Carmel Point to class at Sunset School.

Army life has a way of stretching time like that. Next month, it will be two years since I was inducted at Monterey.

How long ago was it I played "Inchling" at the Forest Theater? And worked on the Pine Cone for the Cockburns and the Ross C. Millers? I guess I'm the only one besides my family that remembers when I edited "The Carmelite Jr." under Joe Coughlin.

In the Army, I've landed in the kind of work I like. Here at Barksdale Field, just outside the city of Shreveport, Louisiana, I'm working in the public relations office under Major Daniel O. Todd.

It's a good job. We don't have to "sell" people on Barksdale Field or the Air Forces. We just try to keep them informed, and that's what an ex-newspaper reporter likes to do.

We put out a newspaper here—"Barksdale's Bark." It's a good paper and writing for it reminds me of working on Carmel's paper.

The weather here reminds me a little of Carmel, too. By which I mean there hasn't been too much sunshine lately! In the summer, of course, it will become uncomfortably hot, and I think I'll ask for about a three-month's furlough to return to Carmel and its beach I liked so well. At least I can ask.

But there isn't a great deal to say about my military career. After all, actual history is being made by Carmel lads who have been in the thick of things.

I'm thinking about Carlyle Lewis and Gordon Bain, who both gave their lives in plane crashes. And I'm thinking of Billy Jenkins, who died of wounds received in action around the Solomons, and of Robert Hayes Monroe, missing since the fall of Corregidor.

Yes, my army story is dull compared to that of Bill Short in India and Garth Jeffers in Hawaii and Dick Tevis in Africa.

Those are the boys who will have great things to say. They are the men—with millions of others in Russia and China and England—who will end this dirty war which has given the lie to our claims of civilization.

JOSEPH SCHOENINGER, JR.,
Sergeant, 5th Air Base Sq. Barksdale Field, La.

Better Be Good to School Board

Everybody around here had better be careful how they treat the school board because if they want to, the school board can make all the kids go to school on Lincoln's Birthday, Washington's Birthday, and EVERY BLESSED SATURDAY OF THE SCHOOL YEAR.

It's a new state law, and the school board knows about it because they were discussing it at the board meeting Tuesday night up at the high school.

The purpose of the law is to lengthen the school week to shorten the school year so school can let out early in Spring and take up late in the Fall in agricultural districts to release students for farm work.

A Lecture on Christian Science
Entitled
Christian Science: The Science of Christ

by
Dr. Hendrik J. de Lange, C.S.B.
of New York City

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts

A lecture on Christian Science, entitled "Christian Science: The Science of Christ," was delivered in Sunset School Auditorium on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 7, 1943, under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Carmel. Dr. Hendrik J. de Lange, C.S.B., of New York City, was the lecturer. Dr. de Lange is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

Dr. de Lange was introduced by Mrs. Margaret Strasburger, as follows:

"We are privileged this afternoon to listen to a lecture on the greatest discovery of this age, Christian Science. In the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, Mary Baker Eddy, its author, writes 'In the year 1866, I discovered the Christ Science or divine laws of Life, Truth and Love and named my discovery Christian Science.' (page 107).

"This Christ Science or truth of being is as old as creation itself. Mere glimpses of it worked miracles in the lives of Moses and the prophets, but it was demonstrated in its completeness in the life of our loving Wayshower, Christ Jesus. With it he healed the sick, saved the sinner, raised the dead and met all manner of human needs.

"Today the lie of the anti-Christ is claiming power to dominate and darken the thoughts of nations and individuals. If each one of us now will listen humbly and attentively to the message to be delivered, then we shall leave this auditorium prepared to meet and master this malicious claim with a better understanding of the Christ.

"It is a pleasure to introduce to you Dr. Hendrik J. de Lange of New York City, a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts who will speak to you on 'Christian Science: the Science of Christ'."

Here follow a few points the lecturer made:

Christian Science may be defined as the Science, or knowledge, of Christ, Truth. It is not based upon any material sense testimony, but upon the fact that divine intelligence must be inevitably self-explanatory, and that this knowledge must be inevitably available as divine manifestation. Herefrom the deduction may be made that the more correctly one lives Christian Science, the better one becomes conscious of existence as it divinely is; and conversely, the less one is subject to the distorting medium of the material senses through which so many have vainly attempted to find the explanation of existence. In fact, one of the synonymous terms used for Christian Science by its Discoverer and Founder, Mary Baker Eddy, is Divine Science, or knowledge of Divinity, God. The knowledge of God, ideally, is God's knowledge. This ideal is attained in Christian Science in the measure one permits a human, personal, mediatory sense of trying to know the Divine to be exchanged for divine intelligence expressing itself and identifying itself as its own expression.

Mary Baker Eddy distinguishes between Christ and Jesus, thereby preventing the confusion of mixing the human with the divine. It is done by the way of definition in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," pages 583 and 589: "CHRIST. The divine manifestation of God, which comes to the flesh to destroy incarnate error." "JESUS. The highest human corporeal concept of the divine idea, rebuking and destroying error and bringing to light man's immortality."

In Science and Health a statement occurs (p. 565) which admirably summarizes what this lecture has endeavored to give. May its vitalizing truth inspire us evermore: "The impersonation of the spiritual idea had a brief history in the earthly life of our Master; but 'of his kingdom there shall be no end,' for Christ, God's idea, will eventually rule all nations and peoples—imperatively, absolutely, finally—with divine Science."

SUNDAY, FEB. 14, 1943
Next Sunday being Race Relations Sunday in the United States, Dr. James E. Crowther will begin a series of three Pre-Lenten sermons at the Church of the Wayfarer as follows:

Feb. 14, "America's Race Question;"

Feb. 21, "Africa's Race Question;"

Feb. 28, "Asia's Race Question."

President Roosevelt, in the Atlantic Charter, has announced our goal in the present conflict as the Four Freedoms—of Speech, of Religion, from Want, from Fear—and their field of application is "everywhere in the world."

Is that our goal? Winston Churchill who signed it says No! Our Allies in Asia and Africa and millions in America have justifiable doubts. We must not only clarify but also implement the Four Freedoms if we are to win the peace.

SINCE PEARL HARBOR more than two thousand proud "good-byes" have been said to employees of this Company entering the military services.

Early this month it was "good-bye and good luck" to Miss Violet Hooe of the Service Department in Oakland. When Miss Hooe enlisted in the SPARS—United States Coast Guard—she became the two thousandth employee to join up.

In July, 1942, William J. Hickey, steam plant engineer, changed to Navy blue as Boatswain's Mate—Second Class. At that time he was the thousandth employee who had gone to war.

Two thousand young men and women means at least one out of every six of this company's employees are now on war duty. Two thousand means an average of one hundred and fifty employees each month have gone on assignment to the most important job in the world today.

Good-bye and good luck. When the job of beating the Axis is finished—come back to us. Your service record, your job seniority and your interests in the company's old-age retirement plan will be preserved intact and waiting for you. That is the farewell pledge of your company.

Homecoming for Randols

The past weekend found more than a quorum of family present at the Monte Verde home of Dr. and Mrs. F. V. Randolph. Private first class Francis Randolph, Jr., arrived from his San Francisco post with the aviation signal corps; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Randolph were here—Neil is filling a position with the Standard Oil Company, and his wife, Beverly, has been visiting with her family in Pacific Grove; and Lieutenant and Mrs. David Hagemeyer (Jeanne Randolph) came to Carmel from Paso Robles.

Dr. and Mrs. Crowther were hosts to the choir of the Church of the Wayfarer at the showing of the Walt Disney picture "Bambi" at the Carmel Theater on Saturday. The young folks enjoyed it immensely, as did everybody.

 * Congratulations to the Abernethys

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Abernethy return to Carmel this weekend after a two weeks' holiday. The first part of their vacation was spent in Santa Barbara, visiting Mr. Abernethy's sister and in Coalinga, at the home of his brother. The past week found them in San Jose, where the celebration of their wedding anniversary provided the motif for a reunion of Mrs. Abernethy's family.

 * Dinner for Six

Mrs. Elizabeth Cass was hostess Tuesday evening at a dinner party attended by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weston, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Baer and Mrs. Carol Steinbeck. Following the dinner, Mrs. Cass and her guests were invited to share the rest of the evening with the Camera Club, in session at the Art Gallery.

 * 2nd Star for the Pearls

Sam Pearl, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pearl to be inducted into the army, left Carmel Monday to begin his basic training. His brother, Isidore, is now at Camp Robinson, Arkansas, in the medical corps.

Twenty Tables at Serra Mothers Club Bridge

Twenty tables of bridge were enjoyed by the members of the Junipero Serra Mothers Club and their friends in Crespi Hall yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the new school soon to be opened by the Sisters of Notre Dame at the Villa.

Crespi Hall was charmingly decorated by Micaela Martinez and more than a dozen prizes were donated by the Club. Ladies of the parish provided liberal refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cookies and tea.

Table hostesses were Mrs. Joseph G. Hooper, Miss Ellen O'Sullivan, Mrs. J. C. Edwards, Mrs. Redmond Kernan, Mrs. J. K. Partello, Mrs. Gerard Kelly, Mrs. George Hauck, Mrs. D. Warfield, Mrs. N. U. Biehl, Mrs. Alfred Bjurstrum, Mrs. Robert E. Osborne. They were assisted by Mr. Percy R. Osborne.

Mrs. R. B. Stoney, vice-president of the Mothers' Club and chairman of the committee for the bridge, was unable to be present, unfortunately, because of illness.

The Junipero Serra Mothers Club has only recently been formed with Mrs. Alice Osborne, president; Mrs. R. B. Stoney, vice-president; Mrs. W. D. Powell, secretary and Mrs. R. Neumann, treasurer. It hopes to be of substantial assistance to the Sisters of Notre Dame in their teaching venture at the Villa. Mothers interested in the advantages of a Catholic education for their children are invited to become Associate Members.

 * Victory Party

The fact that two 13th birthdays occurred during the past week—Becky Bell's on the 8th and Jim Brettman's on the 7th—called for a party. It was held on the evening of Friday, February 5, at the home of Becky Bell on Guadalupe street, assisting hostesses Roberta Roberts and Nadine Hoeser. Victory was the keynote of the evening, rewards for the prize dances being defense stamps. Refreshments were served at 9:30. The guest list included: Shirlie Sousa, Shirley Petty, Rose Marie Krupocki, Betty Dougherty, Jackie Work, Beverly Dowgiallo, Peggy Riker, Margaret Kollmer, June Canoles, Jimmy Campbell, Dick Cox, Rod Dewar, Bob Rissell, Lew Earl McCreery, John Pearson, Bob Barry and Stephen Brooks.

Peter Elliott II Revisits Carmel
 Peter Elliott II, whose family moved to Burlingame in November, spent the past weekend in Carmel as the guest of Tolland Doud, home from Menlo College to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Doud. Peter Elliott II is awaiting his call into the Army.

To Welcome a Grandchild
 Mrs. Dwight Morrow, Sr. is here on a visit to her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Morrow, Jr., and at the same time greet the new granddaughter.

For Jane and St. Valentine

The visit of her mother, Mrs. Marshall Bond, was signalized for little Miss Jane last Friday afternoon by a Valentine party at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. E. G. Burritt, on Carmel Point. Friends and Sunset schoolmates who enjoyed with her the festive table decorations and dainty refreshments were: Nancy Veit, Joan Burk, Janet Gorman, Jacqueline Crane, Sandra Rhodes and Cherryl Reis.

 * Mrs. McMahon Back

Mrs. N. J. McMahon was once more in her Hatton Fields Mesa home this week, after a three months' absence. During this time she has visited with her husband, Col. McMahon, commanding officer at Fort Leonard Wood, and also journeyed to Lawton, Oklahoma, to see her daughter, Mrs. Warren Wolverton and make the acquaintance of a new grand daughter, whose father is at present stationed with the U.S. Army on the Canadian border.

*** * ***

Mrs. Harold Mack left Thursday to join her husband, Major Mack, U.S.A., in Portland. He has been transferred there from San Francisco.

Second Lt. Edgar Clement Leslie, whose wedding to Betty Bucklen took place on Friday, February 5, in Stockton, coincident with his graduation from the Air Forces Advanced Flying School at Stockton Field as a commissioned officer.

Lt. Leslie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Leslie and his bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bucklen — both families well-known in Carmel. Following the ceremony, which was attended by the groom's buddies in the air corps, Lt. and Mrs. Leslie left for the East, combining a brief honeymoon trip with the journey to his new station.

View Embers

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mylar returned Tuesday from Laton, near Fresno, where they had spent the weekend visiting with his mother, Mrs. Daisy Moody. On the return trip, about ten o'clock Tuesday night, they arrived at the junction of the Hollister and Gilroy roads in time to see the White Horse Inn burn to the ground despite the efforts of several fire departments of neighboring towns. Some of the equipment was saved, the Mylars say, and the fire did not spread to the service station nearby.

Luncheon for Mrs. Williams

Mrs. Thomas J. Williams of Bayview and Martin Way, Carmel, who has been spending the winter months in Fresno, her former home, was guest of honor at a bridge luncheon given by her daughter, Mrs. Albert J. Jessen at the Hotel Californian, Fresno.

Weekend to Fresno

Mrs. Arthur Goodfellow who makes her home in Carmel with her daughter, Kay, has returned from a weekend trip to Fresno with her brother, Mr. B. H. Cory. Kay Goodfellow is a nurse at the Community Hospital, having trained in the American Hospital in Paris, where she continued as a nurse until the capture of the city.

Saturday Wedding

Miss Lida Jean Pierce became Mrs. William L. Wolf on Saturday evening at a ceremony performed in the offices of Judge George F. Ross. A reception followed at the home of the bride. Private William Wolf, U.S.A., is stationed at Fort Ord.

Emma Wishart Allenian Officer

Emma Anna Wishart was one of the officers installed at a meeting of Allenian society, social campus organization of San Jose State college, it was announced today. Miss Wishart was elected to the position of corresponding secretary, in which capacity she will serve for the remainder of the school year. She is a sophomore commerce major at the State college.

Tea for Visiting Pre-Flighters

Captain and Mrs. George W. Steele will be hosts on Saturday at a tea in their home on the Del Monte Fairways following the commissioning ceremonies at the Del Monte Pre-Flight School. Guests will include officers and their wives, from St. Mary's Pre-Flight School, heads of departments at Del Monte, commanding officers at Fort Ord and the Presidio, their respective wives and friends of Capt. and Mrs. Steele.

Remember "Love-Liars"?

Captain Robert Sutro, who played a leading role in Herbert Heron's play "Love-Liars" at the Forest Theater in 1931, and also acted in "Midsummer Night's Dream" that same year, is now stationed at Fort Ord. On Monday evening he and his brother Paul, who is also an actor, had dinner with Herbert Heron at Pine Inn.

Happy to Return

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Matthews, who have been greatly missed for the past two months, are once more living in their home on San Antonio street. During their absence they have visited with their daughter, Mrs. E. W. Lundy, in Phoenix, Arizona, and also spent some time in Redlands and Pasadena. Good news greeted them on their return to Carmel. Their son-in-law Mr. H. P. Champlain, whose position with the United Fruit company has kept him and Mrs. Champlain (the former Phoebe Matthews) in New York all this time, has been transferred to the Pacific Coast. They will make their home in San Francisco now.

Carmel Weekend

Miss Henrietta Janssen and Mrs. S. G. Wilkerson spent the past weekend in Carmel, visiting the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Sweeney. Dr. Sweeney and his wife are residents of Medford, Oregon, where the war emergency has called him back into the practice of surgery from which he had retired. They have spent the winter months at their home in Carmel for the past twenty years.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

TENNIS COURTS

The high school's new tennis courts are undergoing a last minute polishing by Mr. Marrs. This includes the putting in of posts and the marking of lines. All this preparation is for the game with Monterey February the twentieth. The games will be the big initiation for the new courts. — Anne Pierce.

THE FIRST MATCH

Backhands, swift swerves, duce and net balls will be familiar terms heard on the campus. "The reason?" you all ask. A very simple answer. On February twentieth the Carmel tennis squad will play host to the Monterey squad. This is the first match to be played on the Carmel courts since they were completed. Scheduled are six single and two double matches.

The Carmel tennis team also has been invited to Douglas School to play and have supper sometime this week.

Mr. David Marrs, mathematics teacher, is the director of tennis. — Ann Casati.

Padres Split Double Header

Carmel basketeers traveled over the hill last Friday evening to tackle the Pacific Grove light and heavyweight teams.

The spectators got their money's worth, for both teams were red hot. The heavyweight game was heartbreaking for Carmel. Pacific Grove led at half time and at the end of the third quarter. In the final quarter the Carmel boys put everything into their play. The terror of the evening for Pacific Grove was Russ Bohleke. He came through with two beautiful shots tying the score. The heartbreak came when Jim Merbs of Pacific Grove broke the tie making the final score of 31-29.

The Carmel Babes brought home a victory 12-8. The scoring proposition in the lightweight contest was slow, but what little it was, did count for our side.—Ann Casati.

Cement Poured for Pool

Carmel High School is going to have a fish pond! The plans for the pool were drawn as a project by the ninth grade science class, and were presented to the school board for their consideration; upon receiving their consent to the project, the plans were then presented to Mrs. Todd, landscape gardener for C.H.S.; Mr. Calley and Miss Sener, life science teacher. Then the ground was excavated and the pool got under way, under the direction of Orval Mead, science 10, who had made this his project.

Last Saturday the cement was poured but it will be a while yet before it can be stocked with plants and aquatic animals for use by the 8th, 9th, and 10th grade science classes. — Helen Passailaigue.

Eighth Grade Dance

The eighth grade of the Carmel High School had a very successful dance at the Sunset School cafeteria. By 7:30 almost all the eighth grade had turned out. The decorations were red and white and were supervised by Robert Jensen. The food and punch situation was taken care of by Mary Gregory. Sue Dekker and her committee provided the entertainment. After eleven o'clock Jerry Shepard and his clean-up committee had the pleasure of sweeping up the broken balloons and other remnants of the festivities. — Anne Pierce.

Signup for Ration Card

One Declaration Blank does for the entire family, and only one member needs to make application.

Each person is allowed to have on hand 5 cans. Any excess must be declared. Cans under 8 ounces are not counted. And don't count jams, jellies, marmalades, or foods you preserved yourself.

Soldiers are to register at the Presidio or Fort Ord. Proprietors of boarding houses, hotels, restaurants and tea rooms are to register at Colton Hall any day between February 23 and 26.

Food stores will not sell any of the foods rationed in No. 2 book between February 20 and 28.

Any questions you have in mind will probably be answered in the Declaration Blank or in a future article in this newspaper.

Following are items not connected with the foregoing.

If your No. 1 book gas coupons are running low, don't wait till they are all gone. Apply at once at Colton Hall for a new supply. This will avoid delay and a possible empty tank.

Babies should be registered at Colton Hall before they are one month old. Take a certificate of birth with you, or other unquestionable evidence.

All ration books of the deceased, or of persons entering the armed forces or becoming inmates of an institution must be returned to the ration board at once.

Your No. 11 stamp in Book No. 1 (for sugar) and No. 25 stamp (for coffee) are good now. — H. G.

By CHARLES A. WATSON

In planting the Victory Garden don't be in too much of a hurry to put in seed or plants that cannot stand the cold night or driving rain. One could plant with safety now onion sets or seeds, cabbage plants, lettuce, radish, carrot and spinach seeds.

In planting seed be sure to thin them out when they have grown two leaves to a distance of three inches, for everything except lettuce, which in a small garden could be left as close as six inches. Peas could be planted now but not beans, squash or beets, as the ground is too cold.

In planting onion sets, plant them with the top even with the ground by simply pushing them down into the soft earth; if for green onions put them an inch apart, then thin them out to four inches if you want them to grow big.

Now is the time to put in fruit trees while they are dormant.

There is nothing nicer to have near the kitchen door than a plant of rosemary, thyme, sweet marjoram, tarragon or parsley to be used for seasoning. These plants can be had at our local nurseries and seeds at the groceries and hardware stores.

Wartime Menu, Income Tax, New Adult Classes

Among the new classes at the Carmel Adult school is one which should appeal to the home maker because of its timeliness. Mrs. Helen Poulsen is starting a new group in War-time cookery, with special emphasis on the point system. Inasmuch as the rationing of many foods starts in a very short time, people are asking questions concerning how to get their points' worth. Mrs. Poulsen will go into this to a great extent, as well as considering such current problems as meat substitutes, the buying, preparing and canning of foods, and planning wartime meals. The homemaker who wishes to give her family the best available nourishment will find much of value in the class in War-time Cookery, which meets Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at 3:15 in the Sunset school lunch room.

Another new class is the one in Income Tax instruction. Mr. Eben Whittlesey met the group for the first time last Wednesday, and from all indications there are many people in Carmel who feel the need of some help in making out their income-tax returns. It must be remembered that the deadline for filing returns is only a month away, and that if the tax-payer has not yet started to think about his taxes it behoves him to start now. The new law is not only higher but slightly different from previous years, and may take more effort than usual. Although Mr. Whittlesey cannot make out individual returns, his explanations of the law should be of great assistance. The class is every Wednesday at 7:30 in the Sunset school library.

Red Cross Bulletins

The Camp and Hospital Service Committee is asking for used silverware to furnish the recreation room at Ord Village. For the hospital at the Presidio of Monterey they need two table model radios for the wards. If you can contribute any of these things, please leave them at Carmel Red Cross Headquarters, marked for Mrs. Hobart Prince.

The Gray Ladies still want magazines for the patients in the station hospital at Fort Ord: National Geographic, Popular Mechanics, Popular Science, Western and Detective magazines, and Comic Books of any date. They do NOT want magazines with continued stories, or news magazines if they are more than one issue old. Boxes for collection will be placed in the Carmel Theater in the lobby, and in the Pioneer store or they may be brought to headquarters.

Many books have been contributed to the Victory Book Campaign, but not enough! MANY MORE ARE NEEDED. The places for collection are: Red Cross Headquarters on Dolores street, the Library, Sunset School or the High School, or Carleton's Grocery at Ocean and Dolores.

Red Cross needs an adding machine to use during the forthcoming War Fund Campaign in March. In years past we have always rented one from one of the adding machine companies, but because of priorities this cannot be done this year, so if YOU have one you would be willing to rent or lend, or if you know of anyone who has, please call Miss King at Carmel 382.

All who wish to take the American Red Cross Staff Assistance course are urged to attend an important meeting to be held at Red Cross Headquarters on Thursday morning, Feb. 11 at 11 a.m.

TEACHERS NEEDED

Any newcomers who have California general primary teaching credentials and would be available for substitute teaching, should get in touch with Mrs. Helen Wood, Sunset Principal.

Anyone May Join Circles to Meet Here Tuesday

There is continued interest shown in the circles formed under the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of the Wayfarer. These circles meet on the third Tuesday of each month in the homes of members or friends of the church.

Red Cross work is provided by the leader of each circle which may be started at the meeting and finished at home later.

The purpose of the circles is to foster Christian fellowship and mutual acquaintance in the community.

The attendance is steadily increasing in some of the circles. There is usually a program planned which proceeds while the ladies are busy with Red Cross sewing or knitting. Some circles are interested in reading and discussion of world events and post-war reconstruction.

All ladies are invited to attend these meetings next Tuesday at 2 p.m. Attend the circle in your vicinity. Ocean Avenue is the line dividing north and south circles. San Carlos is the dividing line between east and west. The area north of First avenue is in Carmel Woods Circle, while all south of Santa Lucia is included in Santa Lucia Circle. Please bring thimbles, needles and scissors.

Carmel Woods: Home of Mrs. M. Fraser, San Pedro Lane, Second house north of San Luis — Tel 1785

Santa Lucia: Home of Miss Kate Firmin, 14th St. east of San Antonio — Tel. 1792W.

Northwest: Home of Mrs. M. F. Lytle, Dolores street — Second house north of 2nd avenue. No telephone.

Southwest: Home of Mrs. D. E. Nixon, Northeast corner of Dolores and 9th avenue, Tel. 52W.

Southeast: Home of Miss L. Lucille Turner, East side of Mission between 10th & 11th. No telephone.

Northeast: Home of Mrs. Edna Askew, Torres between 2nd and 3rd — Tel. 1000J.

Race Problem is Subject for Series Of Lenten Lectures

"America's Race Question" will be the first in a series of three Pre-Lenten messages by Dr. James E. Crowther at the Church of the Wayfarer next Sunday morning. The other two will be "Africa's Race Question," and "Asia's Race Question."

Dr. Crowther took his Master of Arts Degree in African Anthropology and Psychology, and was sent by his denomination on a tour of the African continent. Of the six college presidencies which he has declined, one was in China, one in Malaysia and one in the deep South. He prefers the pulpit.

"The race question is so worldwide and complex as to seem incapable of solution," he says. Yet, if atheistic Russia with 182 nationalities and 149 languages can eliminate race discrimination, surely Christendom can do likewise. It is doubtful if we shall win either the war or the peace, except in a temporary and superficial sense, unless the 'Four Freedoms' are implemented realistically for two-thirds of mankind of various colors now subjected to white domination.

"I am aware that I am handling dynamite, but it is my business not only to Praise the Lord but also to Pass the Ammunition, — the dynamite of truth."

WAVES ENLISTMENT CENTER

Women interested in joining the WAVES and SPARS will have an opportunity to talk to a recruiter, Lt. Tova L. Petersen, at Colton Grammar School from 9 o'clock to 3 tomorrow afternoon.

Nurses wishing to serve in the Navy nurse corps may meet Ensign Joan Meyer, Navy nurse, at the same place and time.

Janet Dalziel Gets Orders to Report For Waves Training

Orders came on Sunday via special delivery for Janet Dalziel, Carmel's newest WAVE recruit. She left Carmel on Monday, for a brief farewell visit with her father, Mr. Andrew Dalziel, of Piedmont after which she will proceed East.

Miss Dalziel begins her training at Hunter's College Annex, the Bronx, New York, on February 17th as an apprentice seaman V 10 (enlisted), and following the three months' course, will be assigned to a post where she will release some man to active duty in the U. S. Navy.

Miss Dalziel has been a resident of Carmel for the past two years and is the second member of the Harrison Memorial Library staff to offer her services to the country as a WAVE. (Ensign Barbara Wood is now stationed in Washington, D. C.) She has been during this time children's assistant, and will be greatly missed as she had won a warm place in the hearts of Carmel children.

New Directory Has Many More Names; Smiths Still Lead

Carmel telephone subscribers today were scanning their copies of the new green-covered telephone directory for Monterey and San Benito counties, delivery of which has just been completed.

The new directory is dated February 1943 and replaces the previous grey covered issue. A total of 2,925 copies were distributed in Carmel and Pebble Beach, 19,499 copies throughout Monterey and San Benito counties. Both figures are new high.

Another record was established in the number of listings in the directory which totaled 2,368 locally and 16,747 for all exchanges included in the issue. The number of listings in Monterey was 5,431. The "Smiths" maintained their hold on first place in local listings with 18, followed in close order by the "Johnsons" with 14, the "Murphys" with 13, and the "Clarks" with 12.

In announcing completion of delivery of the new directory R. P. Sexton, local manager of the Telephone company, called attention to the tremendous volume of war calls being handled by the operators and said:

"One way in which telephone users can help us to help them in speeding these calls is to look in the new directory for the right number before calling; also to call information only when the number can not be found in the directory. Materials to build more lines have gone to war and we appreciate your continued help in making the equipment we have do the job."

W. V. Vanderlip

Washington V. Vanderlip, 74, died at his home on Camino Real shortly before noon on Saturday, February 6.

Mr. Vanderlip was a native of Elkhart, Indiana, a retired engineer, and had made his home in Carmel for the past twelve years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elsie Stewart Vanderlip.

Cremation took place Sunday in Salinas.

Mrs. Sillman

Services were held in Salinas Monday for Mrs. Virginia Sillman, who died here early Friday morning at her home on Camino Real. She was 81 years old and had been a resident of Carmel for 18 years.

She is survived by Mrs. D. A. Bartlett of Providence, Rhode Island and Miss Charlotte Orr of Detroit. She was a native of Detroit, Michigan and the widow of Col. Robert H. Sillman.

Peter Mawdsley
To Solve Secret of
The Forgotten Box

At the school board meeting Tuesday night Peter Mawdsley, financial advisor, informed the members that the Carmel School District has a safe deposit box at the Bank of Carmel, "which nobody has looked into for over two years."

From the macabre tone in which he made the statement the implication was that when someone does look they will probably find cob webs, pieces of eight and maybe a parchment map or two.

He was instructed by the board to investigate the mysterious vault, remove anything of value that might be there, and give the key back to the bank. The board doesn't want a safe deposit box.

Lights Are OK

Harassed high school authorities have asked the Pine Cone Cymbal to inform the public that the lights in the high school gymnasium are within the law—with a 20% margin for good measure.

Passersby and self-appointed inspectors continue to report the high school gym lights, assuming that they violate the dimout ordinance. This is not the case. The lights have been tested with a light meter. They comply with the regulations. And since the test was made, they have been reduced 20% and a second coat of paint has been put on the windows.

Director's Meeting

The Board of Directors of the Carmel Woman's Club will meet on Monday, February 15th at 2:30 p.m. in Hotel La Ribera. Members of the board are: Mrs. Helen Clark Cranston, president; Mrs. William Halyard, vice-president; Mrs. Saxon Pope, Mrs. Harry Nye, Miss Ethel Cook, Mrs. Louise Grigsby, Mrs. J. W. Getsinger, Mrs. Joseph Le Conte and Mrs. J. E. Abernethy.

Professor and Mrs. Francis E. Lloyd were hosts on Tuesday evening to a group of their friends gathered to see Prof. Lloyd's colored slides of Australian flowering plants.

Father O'Connell
Tells How to Be
Two Places at Once

A news item which appeared in the San Francisco Call-Bulletin on Thursday, February 4, has brought a swarm of anxious inquiries to the Carmel Mission this week, from distant friends and former parishioners of the Reverend Michael O'Connell. It is headed "Father O'Connell, 13 Other Priests, Freed in Hong Kong" and reads as follows:

"The Rev. Michael O'Connell, former pastor of the Mission San Carlos Borromeo at Carmel, and thirteen other Mission priests have been freed from Stanley prison in Hong Kong and are now in Knweilin, according to a dispatch received here today.

Father O'Connell was able to explain the mystery. The Rev. Michael O'Connell referred to in the dispatch is a young priest from San Francisco, a namesake of his, and went out to the Orient a year and a half ago as a newly-ordained Maryknoll missionary. He was taken prisoner, so his family was informed, and undoubtedly it is his identity which has been confused with that of Carmel's Father O'Connell.

Sunset Caf. Is Too Prosperous

(Continued from page 1) school cafeterias are not supposed to operate for a profit and asked the school board their pleasure regarding Sunset. The board, after some discussion, instructed her that after Sunset showed a surplus of $1000—a margin that would carry it through three months in an emergency—steps must be taken to eliminate further profit by larger servings, reduced charges, etc.

In the interest of speeding the building of the incinerator at the high school, a job the board had turned over to the students, it was decided to have a professional brick layer put in the foundation, leaving only the welding and metal work to the students.
